The decision of acquisition of the shares of its own issue made by the Bank on its own initiative shall contain details and information provided for by the legislation.

The Bank shall notify the shareholders being the owners of the shares in respect of which the decision of acquisition has been made in accordance with the requirements of the legislation by means of publication in "Zvezda" Newspaper and (or) by means of posting it on the official site of the Bank on the Internet global computer network, or by means of an announcement in any other way making the text of the offer to purchase the shares available to the general public. In cases when the legislation does not require the offer to purchase the shares to be brought to notice of the general public, within 15 (fifteen) days of approving the decision of acquisition of the shares of its own issue by the General Meeting of Shareholders, the Bank shall notify the shareholders being the owners of such shares in accordance with the procedure used for notification of such shareholders about holding of this meeting, or by post and (or) by express delivery (by courier), and (or) with the help of program and technical communication means, including by e-mail, about the number of the shares of each category acquired by the Bank, the share purchase price, the time limit for submission of the offers from the shareholders regarding sale of the shares and the time limit for acquisition of the shares.

The offer for sale of the shares shall be deemed to be submitted by a shareholder in proper time, if it is received by the Bank before expiration of the time for submission of the offers from the shareholders regarding sale of the shares as defined in the decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders on acquisition by the Bank of the shares of its own issue. Offers received by the Bank after expiration of the said time limit shall not be considered.

The offer for sale of the shares shall be submitted in writing by means of sending it to the Bank by post and (or) by express delivery (by courier), and (or) with the help of program and technical communication means, including by e-mail, with obligatory delivery (sending) of the original copy, and shall contain the name (company name), place of residence (location) and signature of the shareholder, the number of the shares of each category to be sold in respect of which the decision of acquisition has been made by the Bank. The offer from the shareholder being a natural person shall also contain the statement about the fact that the sale of the share does not violate requirements of the legislation as to security transactions settled by the persons having available the confidential information of the issuer in the security market. The offer from the shareholder being a legal entity shall be certified by an impression of the seal (if any).

Not later than 10 (ten) days after expiration of the time for submission of the offers from the shareholders regarding sale of the shares, the Management Board shall consider the offers submitted in proper time and make a decision of acquisition of the shares from the shareholders, or refusal to acquire the shares in cases if:

the offer from the shareholder does not comply with the requirements of part six of the present clause, and (or) the decision of the General Meeting of the Shareholders on acquisition by the Bank of the shares of its own issue;

the sale of the shares by the shareholder violates requirements of the legislation as to security transactions settled by the persons having available the confidential information of the issuer in the security market.

The Bank shall, pursuant to the results of consideration of the offers, notify the shareholders in writing about refusal to acquire the shares, or offer to conclude a share acquisition agreement according to the form established by the Bank (with the exception of the case of concluding of an agreement in accordance with the requirements of the legislation on the security market), within the time limit established by the decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders on acquisition by the Bank of the shares of its own issue. The shares shall be acquired subject to conditions of the concluded share acquisition agreement within the time limit stipulated therein which shall not exceed the time limit established by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

I, the undersigned translator, Alexandra S. Neznayeva, do confirm the authenticity of the above performed translation of the attached document from Russian and Belarusian into English.

If the total number of the shares offered for acquisition exceeds the number of the shares decided to be acquired by the Bank, the shares shall be acquired from the shareholders in proportion to the stated offers. If the number of the shares resulting from calculation is aliquant of one, then the method of downward rounding to a whole number shall be applied.

22-1. The Bank shall repurchase the shares of its own issue on request of the shareholders of the Bank in cases and in accordance with the procedure provided for by the legislation.

The Bank shall notify the shareholders about their right to request repurchase of the shares within 10 (ten) days of the date of making a correspondent decision by the General Meeting of Shareholders, by means of publication of the corresponding information in "Zviyda" Newspaper and posting it on the official site of the Bank on the Internet global computer network.

The requests of the shareholders concerning repurchase of the shares shall be submitted or revoked within 60 (sixty) days of the date of making a correspondent decision by the General Meeting of Shareholders by means of sending to the Bank an application with the request concerning repurchase of the shares. The application shall be submitted by the shareholder in writing with indication of the place of residence (location), data on the identity document of the shareholder, number of the shares to be repurchased, details of the banking account for settlement for such repurchase. The request concerning repurchase of the shares is allowed to be revoked only in regards to all the shares of the Bank submitted by the shareholder for repurchase.

The Management Board of the Bank shall approve the report on the results of the submission of the requests from the shareholders concerning repurchase of the shares owned by them which shall contain the data on the number of the shares that have been requested to be repurchased, and the number of the shares which can be repurchased by the Bank, within 5 (five) days of the date of expiration of the time for submission of the requests from the shareholders of the Bank concerning repurchase of the shares of the Bank.

The Bank shall satisfy the requests concerning repurchase of the shares, or notify the shareholders in writing about refusal to repurchase them by means of sending a corresponding decision at the place of residence (location) of the shareholder indicated in his application with the request concerning repurchase of the shares of the Bank within 30 (thirty) days of the date of expiration of the time for submission of the requests from the shareholders concerning repurchase of the shares of the Bank. The requests concerning repurchase of the shares shall be satisfied by means of crediting to the banking account of the shareholder indicated in his application with the request concerning repurchase of the shares.

23. The shares purchased by the Bank pursuant to the decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders on decrease of the authorized capital for the purpose of reduction of their total number, shall be subject to cancellation in accordance with the procedure established by the legislation. The shares purchased according to the decision of the Bank itself in other cases shall be put at the disposal of the Bank.

The shares that have been put at the disposal of the Bank, shall not provide the voting right, they shall not be considered on counting votes at the General Meeting of Shareholders, no dividends upon them shall be accrued with the exception of the case established by clause 24 of the present Article of the Charter.

Such shares shall be subject to execution in accordance with the objective determined in the decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders within 15 years.

24. Pursuant to a decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders, it can be provided for possible receiving dividends upon the shares (their part) that have been put at the disposal of the Bank for the period up to one year by the members of the Management Board.

25. Pursuant to a decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders, the number of the shares of the Bank can be changed without changes in the size of the authorized capital of the Bank by means of consolidation or splitting of the shares. No changes in the number of the shareholders and shareholding ration and formation of fractions (fractional shares) shall be allowed in this case.

The General Meeting of Shareholders shall not have the right to consider and decide on issues that are not included into the agenda of the meeting, as well as change its agenda, with the exception of the case when the shareholders attending the General Meeting of Shareholders, having at least 75 (seventy-five) percent of the voting shares, voted for making a decision on amending (supplementing) the agenda.

46. The Supervisory Board is the management board of the Bank authorized to prepare, convene and hold the General Meetings of Shareholders. The General Meeting of Shareholders can be convened and held by the other bodies or by the shareholders of the Bank in the cases and according to the procedure established by the legislation and the present Charter.

47. The General Meeting of Shareholders can be held in the presentee, absentee or mixed forms. Holding of the General Meeting of Shareholders with the use of technical means of communication is also considered to be the presentee form of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

48. At least once per year, not later than the last working day of the first quarter of the year following the reporting one, the Bank shall hold the annual General Meeting of Shareholders. The annual General Meeting of Shareholders shall be convened by the Supervisory Board with the agenda which is approved by the Supervisory Board and shall include, in particular, the issues provided for by the legislation.

The decision on convocation and holding of the annual General Meeting of Shareholders shall be made by the Supervisory Board within 30 (thirty) days before the date of its holding. If the annual General Meeting of Shareholders is not convened by the Supervisory Board in accordance with the established procedure within the said time limits, it can be convened by the bodies or shareholders (shareholder) of the Bank having the right to request holding an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders.

Prior to the annual General Meeting of Shareholders, the Management Board shall prepare the information about the activities of the Bank for the reporting period that shall contain information to be communicated to the shareholders in accordance with the legislation, the present Charter and local acts of the Bank, as well as other data initiated by the Management Board.

The mentioned information shall be available for review to the persons entitled to participate in the General Meeting of Shareholders at least 20 (twenty) days prior to holding of the annual General Meeting of Shareholders, at the places the addresses of which are indicated in the notice of the General Meeting of Shareholders. This information shall also be available to the persons participating in the General Meeting of Shareholders during the meeting.

49. The General Meetings of Shareholders held in addition to the annual meeting are extraordinary.

The extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders shall be held by the decision of the Supervisory Board on the grounds of: its own initiative; request of another management body of the Bank; request of the Internal Audit Commission; request of an audit organization (auditor being an individual entrepreneur) (hereinafter referred to as the “audit organization”); request of the shareholders (shareholder) of the Bank who possess, in the aggregate, at least 10 (ten) percent of the votes of the total number of the votes of the Shareholders of the Bank; requests of other persons in the cases provided for by the legislation.

The request to hold an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders shall be made in writing by sending it to the Bank by post and (or) by express delivery (by courier), and (or) with the help of program and technical communication means, including by e-mail, with obligatory delivery (sending) of the original copy. The request to hold an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders shall specify the issues to be included into the agenda. The request to hold an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders can include draft decisions on each of such issues as well as the form of the meeting. If the request to hold an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders comes from the shareholders (shareholder) of the Bank indicated in part two of the present clause, it shall contain the name of the natural person or the name of the legal entity requesting to hold such a meeting, and indication of the interests in the authorized capital (number and category of the shares) owned by the shareholders (shareholder) of the Bank. The request to hold an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders shall be signed by the person requesting its holding.

The Supervisory Board shall consider this request and make a decision of convocation and holding of this meeting, or a substantiated decision of refusal to convene and hold it in the cases established by the legislation within 15 (fifteen) days of the date of receipt of the request to hold an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders.

The decision of refusal to convene and hold an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders of the Bank shall be made in the case:

of failure to comply with the established by the legislation and the Charter procedure of submitting of the request to hold an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders of the Bank;

if none of the issues requested to be included into the agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders of the Bank is covered by the competence of the General Meeting of Shareholders of the Bank in accordance with the legislation and the Charter;

if all the issues submitted for consideration do not comply with the requirements of the legislation.

The decision of the Supervisory Board of convocation and holding of an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders or a substantiated decision of refusal to convene and hold it shall be sent in writing by post and (or) by express delivery (by courier), and (or) with the help of program and technical communication means, including by e-mail, to the persons requesting its convocation within 5 (five) days of the date of making this decision.

The extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders shall be held:

not later than in 70 (seventy) days from the date of making a decision by the Supervisory Board of convocation and holding of this meeting, if its agenda includes the issue of election of the members of the Supervisory Board and (or) the members of the Internal Audit Commission;

not later than in 40 (forty) days from the date of making a decision by the Supervisory Board of convocation and holding of this meeting, if its agenda does not include the issue of election of the members of the Supervisory Board and (or) the members of the Internal Audit Commission.

If within the time limit established by the present clause, the Supervisory Board does not make a decision of convocation and holding of an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders, or made a decision of refusal to convene and hold it, the extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders can be convened by another management body of the Bank or shareholders (shareholder) of the Bank having the right to request holding an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders. In this case the expenses on the preparation, convocation and holding of an extraordinary General Meeting can be reimbursed by the decision of this meeting out of the funds of the Bank. Upon request of the management bodies of the Bank and the shareholder (shareholders) of the Bank having the right to request holding an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders, the Bank shall be obliged to ensure formation of the register of the shareholders and its subsequent transferring to the mentioned persons in a timely manner. The extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders shall be opened by the person determined by the management bodies of the Bank, or the shareholder (shareholders) requesting its holding.

50. The decision of the Supervisory Board to hold the General Meeting of Shareholders shall contain the details and data established by the legislation and the present Charter, as well as it can also contain other data the indication of which is reasonable.

51. The right to participate in the General Meeting of Shareholders shall belong to the shareholders of the Bank or their duly authorized representatives, as well as other persons who obtained this right on the grounds established by the legislation.

The list of the persons having the right to participate in the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be drawn up in accordance with the requirements of the legislation on the grounds of the data from the register of the shareholders of the Bank formed as of the date established by the Supervisory Board in the decision of holding this meeting.

52. The shareholders (shareholder) who own, in the aggregate, 2 (two) and more percent of the voting shares of the Bank shall be entitled to introduce proposals into the agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders as well as on the nominees to the Supervisory Board, the Internal Audit Commission, as well as proposals on the number and members of the Tally Commission.

A proposal into the agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be introduced in writing and contain the details and information provided for by the legislation, as well as the data on the place of residence (location) of the person introducing the proposal.

The proposal on the nomination of the candidates to the Supervisory Board and the Internal Audit Commission shall also contain the name of the body of the Bank for election to which the nominees are proposed, the consent of each candidate to include the proposal on the nomination into the agenda and the following information about each candidate (the consent and information shall be certified by the personal signature of the candidate):

surname, name, patronymic, date of birth and place of residence;

education and acquired profession;

place of work and position as of the date of the submission of the proposal and for the period of 3 (three) preceding years;

information on affiliation to the Bank and the list of the persons in respect of which the candidate is an affiliate, as well as the grounds of such affiliation (in respect of the candidates to the members of the Supervisory Board);

information supporting compliance of the candidate with the established qualifying requirements and business reputation requirements (in respect of the candidates to the members of the Supervisory Board).

The proposal into the agenda on the nomination of the candidates to the Tally Commission shall contain the indication of the proposed number of the members of the Tally Commission, as well as the surname, name, patronymic (if any) of each proposed candidate. The proposal on the nomination of the candidates into the Tally Commission who are not employees of the Bank is included into the agenda by their consent made in writing.

The proposals shall be signed by the persons who introduced them, and can be introduced by sending them to the Bank by post and (or) by express delivery (by courier), and (or) with the help of program and technical communication means, including by e-mail, with obligatory delivery (sending) of the original copy. If the proposal is signed by an authorized representative of the shareholder, it shall be accompanied by a copy of the respective power of attorney.

The proposals into the agenda of the annual General Meeting of Shareholders, including those on the nomination of the candidates to the Supervisory Board and the Internal Audit Commission elected at this meeting, shall be received by the Bank not later than in 30 (thirty) days of completion of the reporting year.

The proposals into the agenda of the extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders, comprising the issue of election of the members of the Supervisory Board and (or) the members of the Internal Audit Commission, shall be received by the Bank not later than in 7 (seven) days prior to the date of holding this meeting.

The Supervisory Board shall be obliged to consider these proposals and make a decision on taking them into account, or, in the cases established by the legislation, on refusal to accept them not later than in 10 (ten) days after expiration of the time established for receipt of the proposals into the agenda of the annual General Meeting of Shareholders, and, in the case of holding an extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders, not later than in 3 (three) days after expiration of the time established for receipt of the proposals into the agenda of the extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders. In case of refusal to accept the proposals, the Supervisory Board shall send its written substantiated decision of refusal to the person who introduced these proposals by post and (or) by express delivery (by courier), and (or) with the help of program and technical communication means, including by e-mail, within 5 (five) days of the date of making thereof.

In addition to the issues proposed by the persons entitled to introduce proposals into the agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders, as well as in the case of absence of such proposals, absence or insufficient number of the candidates proposed by such persons for the formation of the Supervisory Board and (or) the Internal Audit Commission, the Supervisory Board shall have the right, at its option, to include into the agenda the issues and candidates subject to their written consent received according to the procedure established by the local act of the Bank approved by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

53. The persons entitled to participate in the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be notified about the decision of holding the meeting:

at least 20 (twenty) days prior to the date of holding the annual General Meeting of Shareholders and prior to the date of holding the extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders, if its agenda includes the issue of election of the members of the Supervisory Board and (or) the members of the Internal Audit Commission;

at least 10 (ten) days prior to the date of holding a reconvened General Meeting of Shareholders and prior to the date of the extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders, if its agenda does not include the issue of election of the members of the Supervisory Board and (or) the members of the Internal Audit Commission.

The persons entitled to participate in the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be notified about holding of the General Meeting of Shareholders by sending the information about holding of the General Meeting of Shareholders which contains the details and data established by the legislation by registered post, or by submitting the notice to each of the mentioned persons with written acknowledgement of receipt, or by publication of this information in "Zvezda" Newspaper within the time limits indicated in part one of the present clause, and (or) by means of posting it on the official site of the Bank on the Internet global computer network.

The Bank can additionally send the information to the persons entitled to participate in the General Meeting of Shareholders by providing them with the notice containing the procedure of acknowledgment with the information about holding of the General Meeting of Shareholders, to the contact telephone number or to the e-mail address of the person entitled to participate in the General Meeting of Shareholders.

In case of making a decision of change of the agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders which was determined when making a decision on its convocation and holding, the Supervisory Board shall notify of this change the persons who have the right to participate in the meeting in accordance with the procedure established by the Supervisory Board not less than 5 (five) days prior to the date of its holding.

54. The Tally Commission consisting of at least 3 (three) members shall be created at each General Meeting for confirmation of presence of a quorum and counting of the votes upon making decisions by the General Meeting of Shareholders on the agenda issues. The Tally Commission is created for holding this meeting, another term of the authorities of the Tally Commission can be established by the decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders. The members of the bodies of the Bank and the persons nominated as candidates for positions in the bodies of the Bank cannot be a part of the Tally Commission. The Tally Commission shall confirm presence of a quorum at the General Meeting of Shareholders, explain questions arising in connection with the exercise of the right to participate in the meeting by the persons having this right, explain the procedure of voting on the issues brought to the voting, ensure observance of the established voting procedure and exercise of the right to participate in the voting by the said persons, count the votes and tally up the results of the voting, draw up the minutes of the voting results and voting ballots and submit them for storage in accordance with the legislation.

I, the undersigned translator, Alexandra S. Neznayeva, do confirm the authenticity of the above performed translation of the attached document from Russian and Belarusian into English.

The minutes of the Tally Commission shall be read out at the General Meeting of Shareholders held in the presentee or mixed form, attached to the minutes of the meeting and not approved by a special decision of the meeting.

The Tally Commission shall be rendered competent if at least 3 (three) members of the Tally Commission participate in its work.

55. The registration of the participants of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be carried out on the basis of the list of the persons entitled to participate in the General Meeting of Shareholders upon presentation by them of the identity documents (for representatives of the shareholders – documents evidencing their powers).

The persons who have not passed registration shall not have the right to participate in the voting.

56. The persons who were registered for participation in the General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with the established procedure and (or) the persons whose filled-in absentee voting ballots were received not later than on the established date of expiration for receipt of the ballots shall be regarded as the persons who participated therein.

The General Meeting of Shareholders shall be rendered competent (have a quorum), if its participants have, in the aggregate, more than 50 (fifty) percent of the votes of the total number of the votes belonging to the shareholders of the Bank unless the legislation and (or) the present Charter do not provide for another number of the votes for the quorum. In case of absence of the established quorum the annual General Meeting of Shareholders shall be held, while the extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders may be reconvened with the same agenda. The reconvened General Meeting of Shareholders shall have a quorum, if its participants have, in the aggregate, more than 30 (thirty) percent of the votes of the total number of the votes belonging to the shareholders of the Bank.

When determining the quorum of the General Meeting of Shareholders held in the absentee or mixed form, the votes represented by the absentee voting ballots received by the Bank within the specified time shall be taken into consideration.

57. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall be opened and presided by its Chairman. The Chairman at the General Meeting of Shareholders can be the Chairman of the Supervisory Board, or another member of the Supervisory Board, or the Chairman of the Management Board, or the person performing his duties, or the person elected from the shareholders or their representatives, or another person elected by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

The minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be kept by its secretary. An employee of the Bank can be elected as the secretary of the General Meeting.

The General Meeting of Shareholders shall elect the Chairman and the secretary of the General Meeting of Shareholders for holding this meeting by simple majority of the votes of the persons participating in the General Meeting of Shareholders. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall have the right to elect the Chairman and the secretary of the General Meeting of Shareholders for any term defined by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

58. Voting at the General Meeting of Shareholders upon making decisions on the issues included into the agenda, shall be carried out by the voting ballots.

The voting ballots shall be handed out to the participants of the General Meeting of Shareholders held in the presentee form with written acknowledgement of receipt at the moment of registration.

The absentee voting ballots shall be handed out to the persons entitled to participate in the General Meeting of Shareholders with written acknowledgement of receipt at the location of the Bank in accordance with the procedure specified in the notice of holding the meeting, and shall be sent by e-mail and (or) by other means to each shareholder who owns more than 1 (one) percent of the voting shares.

I, the undersigned translator, Alexandra S. Nezneyeva, do confirm the authenticity of the above performed translation of the attached document from Russian and Belarusian into English.

Voting at the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be carried out as follows: “one voting share is one vote”, with the exception of cumulative voting for election of the members of the Supervisory Board. The voting share of the Bank is an ordinary (equity) share and, in the cases and according to the procedure provided for by the legislation, a privileged share as well.

For each agenda issue of the General Meeting of Shareholders, a draft decision proposed by the Supervisory Board (management bodies of the Bank or shareholders (shareholder) of the Bank convening the meeting in the cases provided for by the legislation and the present Charter) shall be put to the vote first.

59. The decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be taken by simple majority of the votes (over 50 (fifty) percent) of the persons who took part in that meeting, with the exception of the cases provided for by the legislation and the present Charter.

The decisions shall be taken by the majority of at least 3/4 (three fourths) of the votes of the persons who participate in the General Meeting of Shareholders on the following issues:

introduction of amendments to the Charter of the Bank;

decrease or increase of the authorized capital of the Bank (with the exception of increase of the authorized capital by means of increase in the nominal value of shares at the expense of the funds of its shareholders);

reorganization and liquidation of the Bank; acquisition by the Bank of the shares placed by it upon the decision of the Bank itself;

approval of the local acts of the Bank in the cases provided for by the legislation on business entities;

legal recovery of the damages caused to the Bank by the members of its bodies, affiliates of the Bank in the cases provided for by the legislation on business entities and the Charter, and vesting the shareholders (shareholder) with the powers to bring a relevant action;

change of the type of the joint stock company in which the Bank was established.

The decision of introduction to the Charter of the Bank of amendments and (or) changes that limit the rights of the shareholders being the owners of the privileged shares, shall be made by the majority (at least three fourths) of the votes of the shareholders being the owners of ordinary (equity) shares that participate in the General Meeting of Shareholders, and by the majority (at least three fourths) of the votes of the shareholders being the owners of the privileged shares, whose rights are limited, that participate in the General Meeting of Shareholders.

The decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders of increase of the authorized capital of the Bank by means of increase in the nominal value of the shares at the expense of the funds of its shareholders shall be made by all shareholders of the Bank unanimously.

The decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders of a transaction of the Bank being of interest to its affiliates, and of a major transaction of the Bank, shall be made by the number of the votes specified in the present Charter.

The decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders of election of the members of the Supervisory Board shall be made by cumulative voting.

The candidates who received the greatest total number of the votes shall be elected to the said body of the Bank.

60. Upon counting votes, the votes on the issues on which the participant of the meeting has observed the established procedure of filling in the ballot, shall be taken into account. Upon voting on the agenda issues (with the exception of voting on the issues of election of the members of the Supervisory Board), only one of possible voting variants shall be marked in the ballot.

The voting ballot filled in with violation of the legislation requirements and the procedure defined in the ballot itself shall be deemed invalid.

If the voting ballot contains several issues put to the voting, failure to comply with the procedure of filling in thereof in respect of one or several issues shall not entail invalidation of the voting ballot as a whole.

61. Based on the results of holding the General Meeting of Shareholders, the minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be drawn up not later than within 5 (five) days of its completion.

The decisions made at the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be announced at this meeting and brought to notice of its shareholders in accordance with the procedure provided for notification of holding the General Meeting of Shareholders not later than in 10 (ten) days after the date of completion of this meeting.

The shareholders of the Bank shall be provided with a copy of the minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders upon their request in accordance with the procedure established by clause 95 of the present Charter.

62. When the General Meeting of Shareholders is held in the absentee form, on the date of counting of the votes established pursuant to the decision of the Supervisory Board of holding the General Meeting of Shareholders in the absentee form and specified in the absentee voting ballots, the Tally Commission, on the grounds of the list of the persons entitled to participate in the General Meeting of Shareholders and the absentee voting ballots received by the Bank, shall confirm presence of the meeting quorum, count the votes and tally up the results of the voting. The minutes of the absentee voting results drawn up by the Tally Commission and the absentee voting ballots shall be submitted by the Tally Commission for storage in the documents of the Bank.

The minutes of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be executed based on the minutes of the absentee voting results drawn up by the Tally Commission and signed (with endorsement of each page, including the resolutions attached to the minutes) by the Chairman of the meeting and at least 2 (two) members of the Tally Commission.
